

LB Finance PLC was established as a private limited liability company in May 1971 and converted into a public limited liability company in 1982. It became listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange in 1997, with Lewis Brown & Company Limited holding the majority of shares. In 1994, Vanik Incorporation Limited gained control of the Company. Later on, in 2003, the renowned Sri Lankan entrepreneur, Mr Dhammika Perera assumed ownership, integrating LB Finance PLC into Vallibel One PLC group, a diverse local conglomerate with interests spanning lifestyle, finance, aluminium, plantation, leisure, consumer, and investments. In June 2008, LB Finance PLC was re-registered under the new Companies Act No. 7 of 2007.

Today, we proudly stand among the top-tier Non-Banking Financial Institutions (NBFIs) in Sri Lanka, backed by 53 years of invaluable experience. Throughout the past five decades, we have played a crucial role in fostering prosperity for individuals and businesses across the island. With the trust and respect of millions earned along the way, we are widely acknowledged as the preferred financial services provider in Sri Lanka.
